

Beneficiary Nomination Fact Sheet

Please carefully read the following information before making a nomination on the attached Nomination of Beneficiaries form.

NO NOMINATION

The Trustee will decide in its absolute discretion who receives your account balance (including any applicable insurance proceeds) from amongst one or more of your dependants and your legal personal representative (estate).

WHO CAN YOU NOMINATE?

Under superannuation law, you can nominate:

Individuals

- your spouse or de-facto spouse, including a same sex partner;
- children (including step and adopted children, children of your spouse and other children within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975);

Note: a step child ceases to be a step child when the natural parent dies or a divorce takes place;

- individuals who are financially dependent on you at the time of your death; or
- someone in an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death.

Legal representative (your estate)

Your legal representative is the Executor under your Will or a person granted letters of administration for your estate if you die without having left a valid Will.

WHY CAN'T YOU NOMINATE OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS OR FRIENDS?

The law only allows you to nominate individuals who are your spouse, your children, who are otherwise financially dependent on you or who have an interdependency relationship with you at the time of your death. However, you can choose to nominate to have all or part of your benefit paid to your estate and then via your will your friends and/or other family members can become entitled to receive these superannuation funds.

WHAT IS A FINANCIAL DEPENDANT?

Someone who is financially dependent upon you at the time of your death.

The definition of a dependant under superannuation legislation may be different to the definition which is used for tax purposes regarding how much tax the recipient of the benefit will be required to pay. For more information on estate planning we recommend you speak with your financial or legal adviser.

WHAT IS AN INTERDEPENDENCY RELATIONSHIP?

This is a close personal relationship between two people who live together, where one or both of them provide for the financial and domestic support and personal care of the other. This type of relationship may exist if there is a close personal relationship but the other requirements are not satisfied because of some physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability.

Types of Nominations

▼ NON-LAPSING BINDING NOMINATION

If you provide us with a non-lapsing binding nomination that satisfies all legal requirements subject to our accepting the nomination, we must pay your death benefit to the beneficiary(ies) you have nominated and in such proportions as you have specified, provided:

- each nominated beneficiary is a dependant or your legal personal representative at the time of your death; and
- your binding nomination is in writing and two persons over 18 years of age who are not nominated beneficiaries have witnessed you signing your nomination on the same day.

Note: the binding nomination is non-lapsing, i.e. it will remain in place until it is amended or revoked.

NON-BINDING NOMINATION

▼ If you provide us with a non-binding nomination, your nomination is not binding on the Trustee and only provides a guide as to how you would like your death benefit to be paid, provided:

- each nominated beneficiary is a dependant or your legal personal representative at the time of your death;
- you have not married, entered a de facto or like relationship with a person of either sex or permanently separated from your spouse or partner since making your nomination; and
- your non-binding nomination has not been revoked and is not defective for any reason.

It is important to note that a non-binding nomination will not override a previous, valid binding nomination made by you. If you have already made a binding nomination you must revoke it first and then make a non-binding nomination

- Please complete relationship 1, 2, 3 and/ or, 4. If you require additional space to include details of more than four persons, please copy or print additional copies of the relevant sections.
- Please ensure that the % of benefit of the nominated beneficiaries add up to 100% in order for your nomination to be valid.
